OUR BUILDER'S STORY

IMPERIAL HOMES

As a premier custom home builder, Imperial Homes of Naples specializes in working with clients to identify, design and build dream custom homes. On every project, they pay strict attention to your vision, lifestyle and budget while delivering the highest quality construction services. And with Imperial's years of experience, exceptional performance, commitment to integrity and total professionalism, the company continues to establish relationships that last.

MEET THE ARCHITECT

Architect Jonathan Kukk is the founder of Kukk Architecture and Design, P.A., a design oriented architectural firm, specializing in residential design. Jon has 25 years of experience and has served numerous positions in the American Institute of Architects at both the local and state level. He was also a founding member and chairman of the City of Naples Design Review Board, where he served two terms and helped craft the City of Naples Design Ordinance, still in place today.
